Description: Dr. Stephen and Beth Daniel step up to their mics for a round of questions and answers about Quantum Techniques and energy healing. Questions from previous teleclinics will be addressed, as time permits. Due to the popularity of these Q & A teleclinics, we will only be able to address 1 or 2 questions per client during each event.

When submitting your questions to ASK Quantum Techniques, please make certain you include your email address so that we may contact you before the teleclinic for clarification of your question if necessary. We will give priority to questions that have an email address associated with them. On rare occasion, we may respond directly if that is more appropriate. If you have an urgent issue, email or call a practitioner directly for guidance....do not wait for a teleclinic to receive an answer to your question.

Questions:

1. In what way is quantum healing supposed to effect a cure?
2. What is the accurately correct best medicine for epilepsy?
3. I have damaged Sacroiliac ligaments from being rear-ended in multiple car accidents almost 20 years ago. Since then, have had trouble standing for more than 10 minutes at a time, but for the last 3 years, increasingly have been unable to sit without pain as well. I had to stop working 2 years ago (from a desk job). A surgeon has recommended S.I. fusion surgery, but I will lose the range of motion in that area. I'm also married to a narcissist, so have these relationship issues as well. My religion does not endorse divorce, except for adultery. Also, financially I'm not in a position to leave the marriage. I'm currently taking Vicodin for pain, anti-depressant, anti-anxiety med, muscle relaxant. I'm also using nicotine, which I desperately need to get off of for my spiritual health. It's very confusing, as I've read about EFT, The Healing Code, Emotion Code, Sound healing, etc. I know a man who does energy work, and has told me that my energy is reversed on the side of my S.I. joint. He has reversed this, and my pain for a couple of days, but then the pain comes back. Because of my low finances, I want to make sure something works before spending a ton of money on a modality....hoping it works. Can you advise? I feel like a mess. Confused, Linda
4. Hi, I am a 54 yrs old female from India, I have been suffering from 'Hidradenitis Supurrativa' (Hidradenitis is a chronic and stubborn skin disease centered on inflammation of the large specialized sweat glands (apocrine glands) that are found mainly in the armpits and groin area. These areas show a distinctive mixture of boil-like lumps, areas leaking pus, and scarring, which can be itchy, but usually painful, and the lumps hurt if they are pressed. Aside from the pain and unpleasantness of the condition, it can also be embarrassing and unsightly. There are possibly over 100,000 sufferers in the UK alone with this condition, which can be difficult to treat, although there are a number of treatments that can be tried including medications and surgery. HS is a chronic condition which is managed rather than cured and can unfortunately flare up again even after it has appeared to improve.) more about this condition can be found on the internet. I also suffer from varicose veins and may need surgery. I have just come across Quantum Techniques and was hoping it might help my conditions. I will be very grateful to you if you can tell me if Quantum Techniques can help me. Thanks and Regards

ENGLISH TRANSLATION: Aged 59 years, I am affected by amyotrophic lateral sclerosis since 2006. What technique of Quantum can help me find my nerve impulses and muscle strength?
14. I would like to receive your FREE manuals and other 'samples' -- before I order anything. Please let me know -- IF they are pdf format. I am interested in 'Self-Testing' techniques. Are they available? Please send me samples. Thank you. Aiko

16. Could you please advise me how I can learn QT. I already work with EFT and would like to incorporate it into my Clinic. I do have the Client Manual, Theory and Treatment Protocol and Taking EFT & QT to the next level. I am in Australia. With Thanks. Tory
17. Dear Stephen and Beth, first of all, thank you for the amazing work you are doing. I practice QT on friends, and family, and my question is, what do you do if a client is "difficult", ie, there is a lot of "drama" during the treatment? I have such a client, and I fear that the accuracy of my testing suffers. Steve told me that this can happen if the client brings up some buried emotions/problems of my own. In my case, when I was seriously sick a few years back, I produced just as much drama, so I think that my client makes me remember that. So I found what the problem is, please tell me the solution :) Is there a code to protect myself? (I already asked her to learn QT, and do some of the work on her own). Thank you again!

18. Can using the trauma code for a buried very early childhood trauma (with no memories to work with) be effective?
19. Is it safe to do an ASYR SCAN on a person with a pacemaker?
20. I am very much interested in learning the Quantum Techniques. I have tried listening to ya Teleseminar but due to network problem here in Nigeia. I intend visiting the UK in December. I want to learn, so I want to know how long it will take me to learn, am assuming u have such classes. How much it will cost me for you to teach me, one on one?
21. I want to learn the healing technic, I'm living in Singapore. Where can I learn here? Thanks
22. Please, do you have offices in the UK? Thank you
23. Introduced to QT two days ago. Already know I'm either blocked and/or reversed... cannot seem to get a clear yes/no from any of the testing practices.... where is the best place to start the clearing process in order to go further? Thank you! Patricia
24. Hello - Working with KInesiology here in Norway, I wonder what the explanation for the testing without touching the client is is the el.-magnetic field that strong. How close/far shall I stay next to the client? Very keen on learning and practicing QT. It is what I was looking for, for years. I use Spring Forest Qigong too, which gives wonderful results too. Thank you both for your work. With the best wishes from Norway, Axel
25. Thank you for so many things: Among them, helping with my bone condition; And I no longer fight colds every other week; my white blood cell count is normal; the hot flashes are gone; I am sleeping all night; and the session regarding "not being held hostage by others' expectations" has gone a long way towards keeping more free from worry.
26. I have Parkinson's disease -- how can I cure it?
27. How do I change my subconscious so that I want to be completely over a chronic illness? A practitioner finds I am willing to let the illness go for only three months! Until you can answer this, I will review the text of the 8-part series on Chronic Illness ... Maybe you discuss the solution in there.
28. I recently listened to Giselle and Dr. Spurlock's teleclinic on chronic fatigue and bio-identical hormones. Soon after I read author and homeopath Dr. Teresa Dale say that her findings showed even bio-identical hormones to be toxic to the body, as well as feeling that any added hormones put the body's natural hormone function to sleep. She recommends only rejuvenation of hormones. What is QT's take on this? Is it possible that bio-identical hormones are toxic to some people but not all?
